In re Application of Richard J. Petrocy Application No. 08/807,567

Filed: February 28, 1997

For: SELF ADDRESSING CONTROL UNITS AND MODULAR SIGN INCLUDING PLURALITY OF SELF-ADDRESSING CONTROL UNITS

SPECIAL PROGRAMS OFFICE DAC FOR PATENTS

ON PETITION

This is a decision on the petition under 37 C.F.R. § 1.137(a), filed January 21, 1999, to revive the above-identified application. The petition under 37 CFR 1.48(b) requesting correction of inventorship which will be treated as a petition under 37 CFR 1.48(a) based upon the statements made by the petitioner that the inventor sought to be deleted should not have been included as a joint inventor for the above-identified application, will be held in abeyance until such time as the application is revived pursuant to a grantable petition under 37 CFR 1.137.

The petition is under 37 CFR 1.137(a) is dismissed.

Any request for reconsideration of this decision must be submitted within TWO (2) MONTHS from the mail date of this decision. Extensions of time under 37 CFR 1.136(a) are permitted. The reconsideration request should include a cover letter entitled "Renewed Petition under 37 CFR 1.137(a)."

This application became abandoned for failure to timely and effectively reply to the Office action mailed June 17, 1998. Accordingly, this application became abandoned at midnight on September 17, 1998. A Notice of Abandonment was mailed on January 25, 1999.

Effective December 1, 1997, the provisions of 37 CFR 1.137(a) now provide that where the delay in reply was unavoidable, a petition may be filed to revive an abandoned application or a lapsed patent pursuant to 37 CFR 1.137(a). A grantable petition pursuant to 37 CFR 1.137(a) must be accompanied by:

- (1) the required reply, unless previously filed. In a nonprovisional application abandoned for failure to prosecute, the required reply may be met by the filing of a continuing application. In an application or patent, abandoned or lapsed for failure to pay the issue fee or any portion thereof, the required reply must be the payment of the issue fee or any outstanding balance thereof.
  - (2) the petition fee as set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(I);
- (3) a showing to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that the entire delay in filing the required reply from the due date for the reply until the filing of a grantable petition pursuant to 37 CFR 1.137(a) was unavoidable; and
- (4) any terminal disclaimer (and fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.20(d)) required pursuant to 37 CFR 1.137(c).

The instant petition does not satisfy requirements (1) and (3) above.

Failure to Submit the Required Reply

Petitioner has not submitted a proper reply to the Office action mailed June 17, 1998. In the instant case the required reply can consist of an Amendment, Request for Reconsideration, or a continuing application. An Amendment or Request for Reconsideration must comply with 37 CFR 1.111 which sets forth the requirements for a reply and 37 CFR 1.121 which sets forth the manner in which any amendments are to be made. 37 CFR 1.111 states, "in order to be entitled to reconsideration or further examination, the applicant or patent owner must reply" and "the reply must:

- (1) be reduced to a writing which distinctly and specifically points out the supposed errors in the examiner's action;
  - (2) reply to every ground of rejection in the Office action;
- (3) present arguments pointing out the specific distinctions believed to render the claims, including any newly presented claims, patentable over any applied references;
  - (4) appear to be a bona fide attempt to advance the application to final action;
- (5) in amending the claims, clearly point out the patentable novelty which he or she thinks the claims present in view of the state of the art disclosed by the references cited or the objections made; and
  - (6) show how the amendments avoid such references or objections.

Petitioner has stated that the proposed response is enclosed with the instant petition, (See #3 of Petition for Revival of Application for Patent Abandoned Unintentionally under 37 CFR 1.137(a)), however none of the documents submitted, a Petition to Correct Inventorship, and the Interview Summary and Response to Interview Request, meet the requirements set forth above. It is clear that petitioner is not familiar with the rules and procedures to be followed in effectively prosecuting a patent application and it is recommended that petitioner retain the service of a registered practitioner if further attempts to revive the above-identified application are to be made.

Failure to present an Adequate Showing of Unavoidable delay

The Commissioner may revive an application if the delay is shown to the satisfaction of the Commissioner to have been "unavoidable". 35 USC 133. Decisions on reviving abandoned applications have adopted the reasonably prudent person standard in determining if the delay was unavoidable. Ex parte Pratt, 1887 Dec. Comm'r Pat. 31, 32-33 (Comm'r Pat. 1887)(the term"unavoidable" is applicable to ordinary human affairs, and requires no more or greater care or diligence than is generally used and observed by prudent and careful men in relation to their most important business"); In re Mattullath, 38 App. D.C. 497, 514-15 (D.C. Cir. 1912); Ex parte Heinrich, 1913 Dec. Comm'r pat. 139, 141 (Comm'r Pat. 1913). In addition, decision on revival are made on a case-by-case basis, taking all the facts and circumstances into account." Smith v. Mossinghoff, 671 F.2d 533, 538, 213 USPQ 977,982 (D.C. Cir. 1982). Finally, the burden of showing the cause of the delay is on the person seeking to revive the application, Smith v. Mossinghoff, Id., and a petition to revive an application as unavoidably abandoned cannot be granted where a petitioner has failed to meet his or her burden of establishing the cause of the unavoidable delay. Haines v. Quigg, 673 F. Supp. 314, 5 USPQ2d 1130 (N.D.Ind. 1987).

The test of unavoidable delay is the "reasonably prudent person" test set forth In re Mattullath, 38 App.D.C. 497, 514-15 (D.C. Cir. 1912): "the test of whether the delay is unavoidable is applicable to ordinary human affairs, and requires no more or greater care or diligence that is generally used and observed by prudent and careful men In relation to their most important business".

There are three periods to be considered In treating a petition to revive under 37 CFR 1.137(a): (1) the delay In reply that originally resulted In the abandonment; (2) the delay In filing an initial petition pursuant to 37 CFR 1.137 to revive the application; and (3) the delay In filing a grantable petition pursuant to 37 CFR 1.137 to revive the application.

With respect to the first period, an application is abandoned "unavoidably" only where petitioner, or counsel for petitioner, takes all action necessary for a proper response to the outstanding Office action, but through the intervention of unforseen circumstances, such as failure of mail, telegraph, telefacsimile, or the negligence of otherwise reliable employees, the response is not timely received in the Office. Ex parte Pratt, 1887 Dec. Comm'r Pat. 31 (Comm'r Pat. 14887).

The showing on the record is inadequate to establish unavoidable delay within the meaning of 37 CFR 1.137(a). Petitioner asserts that his counsel withdrew from representation and did not provide a copy of the Office action mailed June 17, 1998. (See Paper No. 10, Interview Summary, October 6, 1998). However, petitioner's former counsel states In the Application to Withdraw from Attorney of Record filed September 25, 1998, that a copy was sent to the Applicant, but refers to a Restriction requirement of which there is no record In the application file. Therefor, an adequate showing of unavoidable delay should include a showing from the prior counsel as to whether or not a copy of the June 17, 1998, action was sent to petitioner, and if a copy of the action was sent to petitioner, evidence of when it was sent to petitioner and when it was received by petitioner, as well as a copy of the action sent and any other correspondence or communications sent to petitioner which may be relevant to determining what action was taken to prevent the above-identified application from becoming abandoned while In the control of the withdrawing attorney.

If revival of the above-identified application is pursued, petitioner may also wish to consider filing a petition under 37 CFR 1.137(b) to revive an unintentionally abandoned application. A grantable petition to revive an abandoned application under 37 CFR 1.137(b) must be accompanied by: (1) the required reply (unless previously filed), which may met by the filing of a continuing application In a nonprovisional application abandoned for failure to prosecute, but must be the payment of the issue fee or any outstanding balance thereof In an application or patent, abandoned or lapsed for failure to pay the issue fee or any portion thereof; (2) the petition fee required by 37 CFR 1.17(m); (3) a statement that the entire delay In filing the required reply from the due date for the reply until the filing of a grantable petition pursuant to 37 CFR 1.137(b) was unintentional; and (4) a terminal disclaimer (and fee as set forth In 37 CFR 1.20(d)). If petitioner elects to file a petition to revive an unintentionally abandoned application, a CPA request under 37 CFR 1.53(d) may be filed as the required reply with the correct inventors identified. Blank petition for revival under 37 CFR 1.137(b) and Request for CPA under 37 CFR 1.53(d) forms are provided for petitioner's convenience.
